

Accounting Senior or Manager

Responsibilities

Accounting seniors and managers at Slattery & Holman P.C. experience a wide variety of projects and responsibilities within many different industries. You will be expected to heavily invest in client relationships to better strengthen the firm's rapport. At Slattery & Holman P.C. client relationships drive the success of the firm. We pride ourselves on being a long term business partner rather than just a provider of compliance services. You will be relied upon to think creatively about what additional value the firm can add for our clients. You will be expected to lead a client service team and be the primary contact for our clients.

At Slattery & Holman P.C. we value our employees' professional growth as well as personal growth. We recognize the value of a good work-life balance. Our firm is comprised of well rounded people with a strong desire to continuously learn and assist our clients. There is great opportunity for advancement based on performance and growth in this consulting and client relationship driven environment. We are seeking individuals who are driven to perform more than the traditional compliance work done at a typical public accounting firm.

Qualifications

- 3+ years of recent public accounting experience
- CPA certification
- Motivated hands-on client manager
- Experience in tax compliance and financial reporting
- Excellent leadership, organizational, and verbal/written communication skills
- Desire to learn and grow in a team environment
- Experience in long term care and cost reports a plus (not required)

About Slattery & Holman P.C.

We are a full service accounting and consulting firm serving businesses and individuals throughout Indiana. We provide a high level of personal attention to our clients. We distinguish ourselves from the competition with creative thinking and by continuously exceeding expectations. Our client relationships typically last over twenty years, well beyond the industry average. We are selective in the clients we choose to work with so we can provide not only short term services but big picture insights. For over 30 years, Slattery & Holman P.C. has built a strong reputation in the community for developing successful relationships.
